Can't Fool Me

So two Irishmen are traveling to Australia. Before they leave home, one of their dads gives them both a bit of advice: "You watch them Aussie cab drivers. They'll rob you blind. Don't you go paying them what they ask. You haggle."

At the Sydney airport, the Irishmen catch a cab to their hotel. When they reach their destination, the cabbie says, "That'll be twenty dollars, lads."

"Oh no you don't! Me dad warned me about you. You'll only be getting fifteen dollars from me," says one of the men.

"And you'll only be getting fifteen from me too," adds the other.

Dewain Bilbrey—April 3rd

Thoughts for the day ...

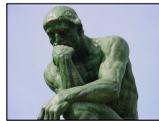

If you think nobody cares whether you're alive, try missing a couple of monthly payments.

Forget the health food. I need all the preservatives I can get.

If tomatoes are technically a fruit, is ketchup a smoothie?

I just read that 4,153,237 people got married last year. Not to cause alarm or worry, but shouldn't that be an even number?

Do You Know ?

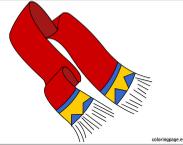

- 76. Who was "a cake not turned"?
- 77. Who were Mahlon and Chilion?
- 78. What was the name of Jacob's daughter?
- 79. What was the other name of Dorcas?
- 80. Who helped Jesus bear his cross?

of Cyrene. Luke 23:26.

1:1-5. 78. Dinah. Gen. 30:21. 79. Tabitha. Acts 9:36. 80. Simon

76. Ephraim. Hos. 7:8. 77. Husbands of Orpah and Ruth. Ruth

Our Purpose

An interesting phenomenon is occurring across North America this winter. Individuals and groups are making some things to help those who are cold and in need. The things are scarves and they are turning up in unusual places—wrapped around trees, fire hydrants, light poles, hanging on fences, etc. On a fire hydrant, a note inside the scarf read: "I AM NOT LOST! If you need this to stay warm, then please take it. It is yours. Be warm, and do something to help someone else today if you can" (Good Samaritans leave scarves out for the homeless in Canadian, U.S. cities, Yahoo News, January 5, 2017). Another scarf, wrapped around a parking meter contained a note that said, "I'm not lost. If you are cold, I'm yours. I was made for you to take" (Ibid).

"Made for you to take"—the scarves "knew" their purpose and were in the process of fulfilling that purpose. From around the country, it is reported that the scarves are gone within hours of being put out.

The Lord Jesus knew his purpose while he was on this earth and went about doing it. He said, "For the Son of Man came to seek and save the lost" (Luke 19:10 ESV). He also said to God, "I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work you gave me to do" (John 17:4). The writer of Hebrews summarized the mission of Jesus by quoting Psalm 40:6-8, part of which says, "Behold I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book" (Hebrews 10:7).

Those of who follow God also have a clearly stated purpose in the Old Testament, the statement is made: "Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man" (Ecclesiastes 12:13). In the New Testament, Paul says, "So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him" (2 Corinthians 5:9). With so many people looking for meaning to their life, why not help them see the purpose God has for all of us and help them fulfill it?

What Are You Singing?

I noticed that many already have their own invitation song. Not that everyone's signing their own tune but rather the song of their heart and mind that is influencing their response.

You see some are singing, "I Shall Not Be Moved." No matter what the lesson was about, no matter how important it is that they make a change, they are firmly planted where they are, refusing to budge.

For some their invitation song is "Farther Along." The message may have hit home but the thinking is the response can be delayed. Sometime farther along I make a change, farther along I'll obey the gospel, farther along I'll repent.

Another might be on a chorus of "Faith of Our Fathers." Dad was a preacher, Mom was a bible class teacher, so I'm good since they were.

It might be their song is "When This Passing World Is Done." They would respond but not ready to give up their worldly ways.

But there are those that hear in their hearts, "I Am Resolved." They know what they need to do and have taken the courageous step to do just that. They understand the danger of delay and that personal response is demanded. So they are willing to do what the scriptures teach.

When the next invitation is offered, what will you be singing?
