A NEW YEAR PRAYER FOR THE ELDERLY

God, grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked anyway, The good fortune to run into the ones that I do, And the eyesight to tell the difference.

A new years resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other.

Prayer List for those with on-going health problems:

Joe Hershey	Karen Joy	Barbara Polk
George Gwyn	Anna Schroeder	Bebie Key
Norma Fahnert	Winnie Roberson	Martha Estes

Our Ill and Shut-ins

Brenda Warren has had the flu.

Please review the names on our prayer list (on the other side of this sheet) and keep them all in your prayers.

Our Sympathy

A cousin of Bill Warren and Annetta Tucker passed away suddenly last week in Tennessee.

Ho! Ho! Ho!

If you make a New Year's resolution to eat a healthy diet, and you keep it, you won't actually live longer, but it will seem longer.

Youth is when you're allowed to stay up late on New Year's Eve. Middle age is when you're forced to.

Wait a second, there's ANOTHER year? I have to do it all over again???

Do You Know ?

11. Who went forty days on the strength of two meals?
12. Who had fish for breakfast by a seaside?
13. What food were the Hebrews allowed to sell to foreigners but not allowed to eat themselves?
14. What persons had food from heaven and did not like it?
15. How many people did Jesus feed with two fish?

11. Elijah. 1 Kings 19:7, 8. 12. Jesus and the seven. John 21:9-11. 13. That died of itself. Deut. 14:21. 14. Israelites. Num. 11:4-6. 15. 5,000 men, and women and children. Matt. 14:15-21.

I've Got to Start ...

You may actually know someone who has begun a sentence using the above words. The words that this preacher has heard used most often to complete this sentence are "exercising" and "eating right." It appears that most of us have a sense of what it will take to improve our health.

The key to accomplishing the desired improvement is truly given in this statement. It is the word "start." We may be playing mind games with ourselves when we utter these words, because if we never start, we will not have to continue the process. Perhaps we feel that we can handle the guilt better than the discipline.

What about spiritually? Have we not also heard someone (ourselves) say, "I've got to start studying my Bible regularly?" We believe what Jesus said about those who "hunger and thirst after righteousness" (Matthew 5:6), but we are still waiting to start.

What about the one who says, "I've got to start visiting like I should"? We believe what James wrote about "pure religion" consisting of visiting the "fatherless and the widows in their affliction" (James 1:27), but we just cannot seem to get started.

In reality, when we make these statements, we are taking the first step; i.e., admitting the personal need/responsibility. Now all we need to do is specify. Instead of repeating the "I've got to" part, say, "I will start (an activity) today at (a time)." Next, set a reminder and then START! Change for the better will become reality when we do. Paul exhorted, "For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). Let's get started today.

Words of Wisdom

- A man is only as good as what he loves.
- All the beautiful sentiments in the world weigh less than a single lovely action.
- One of the nice things about problems is that a good many of them do not exist except in our imaginations.
- To err is human; to blame it on someone else is really human.
- Too many people are praying for mountains of difficulty to be removed, when what they really need is courage to climb them.
- He has the right to criticize, who has the heart to help.
- If you want to get even with someone, start with someone who has helped you.
- Remember not only to say the right thing at the right time and place, but far more difficult still, to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.
- We have no one to blame but ourselves when our enthusiasm and zeal are gone, if we have failed to feed them.
