The Family

Our Ill and Shut-ins

Charlotte Miller had a major stroke and is partially paralyzed and unable to talk. Her home address is 5307 Redbud Place, Sand Springs, OK 76063. Her sister, Janet, may be reached by phone—918-527-7245.

Betty Joy has a spot on her liver. The doctors are evaluating it. At this time they do not think it is malignant.

Judy Perkins is being treated for a blood clot.

Helen Flowers is doing a little better. Her shingles sores are scabbing over.

Please review the names on our prayer list (on the other side of this sheet) and keep them all in your prayers.

Birthdays:

Sheila Hogue—May 14th
Annetta Tucker—May 15th

God's Wings

An article in National Geographic several years ago provided a penetrating picture of God's wings. After a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to access the inferno's damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree.

Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, the ranger reached out to knock the bird over with a stick. As he gently struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under the dead mother's wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and had gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise.

She could have flown to safety but she refused to abandon her babies. When the blaze reached her, the heat had scorched her small body, but the mother had remained steadfast. Because she had been willing to die, those under the cover of her wings had lived.

"He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings you shall take refuge" (Psalm 91:4).

Remember the One who loves you, and then be different from the masses of the world because of that love.

On the Lighter Side ...

Can't Teach an Old Dog to Fly

A woman called our airline customer-service desk asking if she could take her dog on board.

"Sure," I said, "as long as you provide your own kennel." I further explained that the kennel needed to be large enough for the dog to stand up, sit down, turn around, and roll over.

The customer was flummoxed:

"I'll never be able to teach him all of that by tomorrow!"

A Mother's Love

There are times when only a mother's love
Can understand our tears,
Can soothe our disappointments
And calm all of our fears.

There are times when only a mother's love
Can share the joy we feel
When something we've dreamed about
Quite suddenly is real.

There are times when only a mother's faith
Can help us on life's way
And inspire in us the confidence
We need from day to day.

For a mother's heart and a mother's faith
And a mother's steadfast love
Were fashioned by the Savior
And sent from God above.
