

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Visitation Group #3 will meet tonight with Phillip & Teal Carter.

Amarillo Bible Chair

Note from Jerry Klein

I just wanted to say goodbye to some of you as I depart the Amarillo Bible Chair.

None of us know what the future holds, but Mural Worthey is a good man who has a heart for college students, and is academically qualified to teach the credit classes we offer here at Amarillo College. Would you please join me in praying that this ministry has its very best day to come?

I love you, and will keep you in my prayers even after I depart.

Jerry Klein

On the Lighter Side ...

Don't wear headphones while vacuuming. I've just finished the whole house before realizing the vacuum wasn't plugged in.

Do You Know ?

11. What apostle rebuked another apostle?
12. Who said he was "crucified with Christ"?
13. To whom did Paul refer as "pillars"?
14. Where are we admonished not to "neglect so great salvation"?
15. What people "searched the scriptures daily"?

11. Paul, Gal. 2:11, 12. Paul, Gal. 2:20, 13. James and John, Gal. 2:9, 14. Heb. 2:3, 15. Bereans, Acts 17:11.

Those That Are Sick Of Our Church

You hear people make the statements; "I want Jesus but not the church," "Jesus is my personal savior but I'm not into organized religion," and "I find my spirituality in nature, not in a pew with other people." It's an emphasis that while Jesus is desirable, his church is not.

Can you have one without the other?

Consider what is said in Acts 9:3-4. Here Saul is confronted about his actions. The Voice from heaven asks why are you persecuting Me? Saul is confused. The Voice from heaven must be the Lord but when has he persecuted the Lord? He was doing what he was doing for the Lord (Acts 26:9, Philippians 3:6)! So he ask, "Who are You, Lord?" The response was, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting."

So Paul had been persecuting Jesus, but when had he been persecuting him? Jesus was in heaven, having ascended there before Saul is ever in the picture.

How had he done it?

To find the answer all we have to do is go back to the first of Acts 9:1-2. Saul had been attacking the disciples, the Way, the church. You see in attacking Jesus' people you are attacking him. Go after a man's bride and you are launching an attack on him (Ephesians 5:23). If you are dismissing the church of Christ, you are dismissing Jesus.

Before we are quick to attack the church we need to remember that in doing so we may just find ourselves picking a fight with the Lord. Jesus came to establish His church (Matthew 6:18), He bought it with His blood (Acts 20:28), it is His body (Colossians 1:18). Should we be so quick to dismiss what so clearly is important to Him?

The Facial Anatomy of a Soul Winner

I was thinking the other day about all the sayings I used to hear concerning parts of our heads that were meant to keep us alert and going in life. We have all heard them from time to time in our lives: from parents, teachers, and coaches. But I was also thinking of how they can apply to our trying to reach others with the message of Christ. Note, for example:

- Keep your thinking cap on.
- Keep your eyes on the ball.
- Keep your ears open.
- Keep your nose to the grindstone.
- Keep a stiff upper lip.
- Keep on smiling.
- Keep your chin up.

In other words, we need to keep thinking of ways to reach people, keep focused on the goal, keep listening for opportunities, keep after it, keep courageous, keep optimistic, and keep staying proud of who we are as a Christian. It is only then that we will be able to face others with the message of hope and influence others toward Christ. Christian, what does your face look like?
